Gaj Kesari Yoga

Gajakesari Yoga

Formed when Jupiter is in a kendra
(1st, 4th, 7th, or 10th house) from the Moon

Known for bringing prosperity, intelligence, respect, and wisdom to the native. It indicates a person with a good reputation, financial stability, and leadership qualities

Strength of Jupiter and Moon (in exaltation or own signs) and avoidance of affliction by malefic planets enhance this yoga's benefits

Parijat Yoga

Parijat Yoga

Occurs when the lord of the Ascendant is placed in its own or exalted sign and aspected or associated with benefic planets

Considered a very auspicious yoga for fame, long life, good health, and success in undertakings

The strength of the Ascendant lord and the absence of malefic aspects are crucial for this yoga to yield full benefits

Neechabhanga Yoga

Neechabhanga Raja Yoga

Occurs when a debilitated planet is canceled by specific conditions,

The lord of the sign where the planet is debilitated is in a kendra from the Moon or Ascendant

The planet causing the debilitation is in a kendra

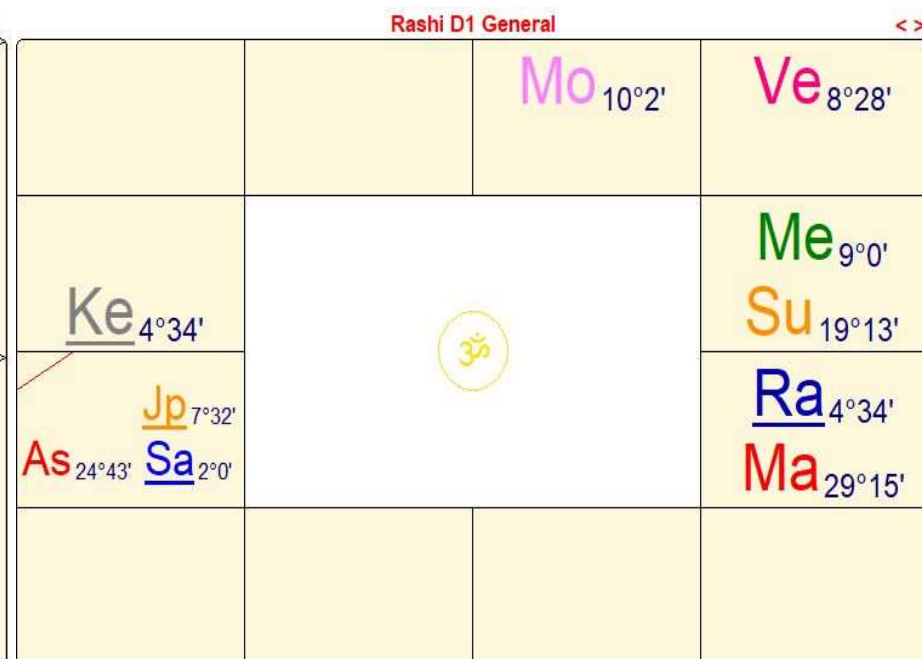

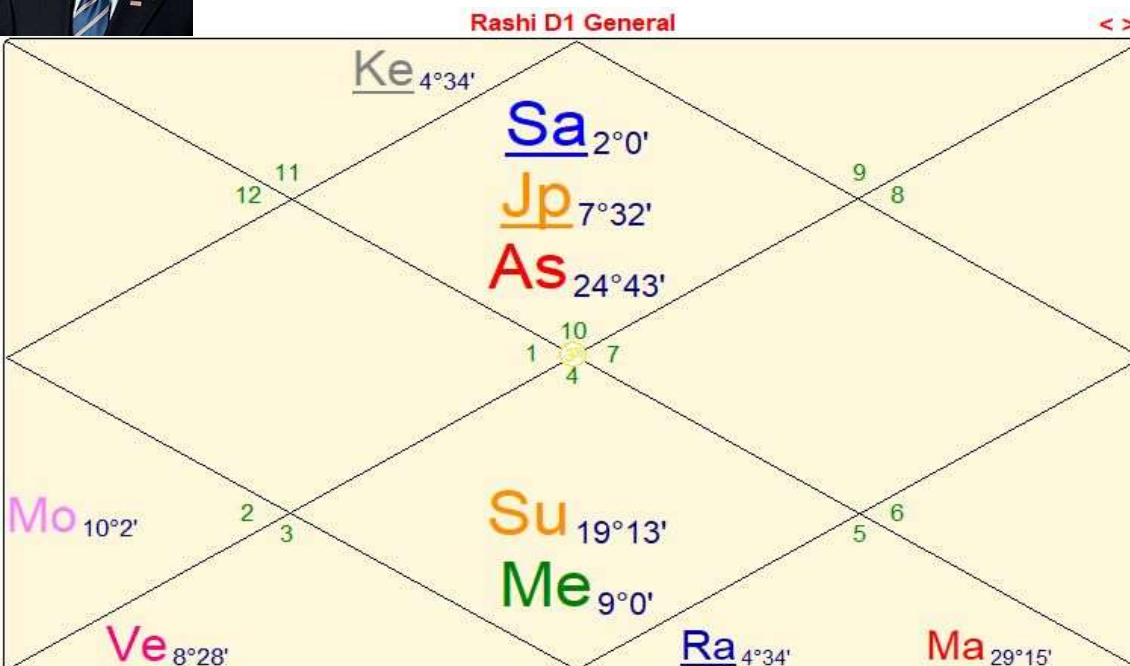

- The debilitated planet is exalted in the Navamsa chart

This yoga turns weaknesses into strengths, granting the native unexpected success, high status, or relief from challenges.

The debilitation cancellation should occur through a strong lord or placement, ideally supported by benefic planets

Vasumati Yoga

Vasumati Yoga

Formed when benefic planets (Jupiter, Venus, and Mercury) occupy upachaya houses (3rd, 6th, 10th, or 11th) from the Ascendant or the Moon.

- Known for bringing wealth, abundance, and prosperity.
- Benefic planets should not be afflicted or weakened for this yoga to fully benefit the native

Chandra - Mangal Yoga

Chandra Mangal Yoga

Created when the Moon and Mars are in conjunction or mutual aspect.

This yoga gives financial growth, entrepreneurial spirit, and determination. The native can excel in business and accumulate wealth.

Strong, well-placed Moon and Mars (preferably in favorable houses) make this yoga more effective

Budhaditya Yoga

Budhaditya Yoga

Formed when the Sun and Mercury are together in the same house.

Known for increasing intelligence, sharp thinking, eloquence, and an aptitude for communication, making the native a good speaker or writer.

The yoga is especially beneficial if it occurs in the 1st, 10th, or 5th houses and if Mercury is unafflicted by malefic influences

Dhana Yoga

Dhana Yoga

Formed by beneficial associations of the 2nd, 5th, 9th, or 11th house lords with each other, especially when connected with the Ascendant

This yoga is a wealth yoga, bringing financial prosperity, material success, and opportunities for wealth accumulation

Strong, well-placed lords of wealth-related houses without affliction ensure the stability and intensity of wealth through this yoga

Viprit Raj Yoga

Viparita Raja Yoga

Formed when lords of dusthana houses (6th, 8th, and 12th) are in each other's houses or in other dusthana houses.

known as a “reverse kingly yoga” that brings unexpected success, gains from adversities, and resilience in challenging situations

The strength of the dusthana lords and their mutual exchange or placement in malefic houses strengthens this yoga's positive effects

Raj Yoga

Raj Yoga

Formed through combinations of kendra (1st, 4th, 7th, and 10th) and trikona (1st, 5th, and 9th) lords, such as their mutual aspects, conjunctions, or placements in each other's houses.

Known for bringing high status, fame, power, and overall success, Raj Yoga is considered one of the most auspicious yogas in Vedic astrology.

Strong, unafflicted planets involved in kendra-trikona combinations yield full Raj Yoga benefits

Amala Yoga

Amala Yoga

Created when a benefic planet (Jupiter, Venus, or Mercury) occupies the 10th house from the Ascendant or Moon.

Brings fame, integrity, a good reputation, and virtuous conduct, often associated with a positive public image.

The planet should not be afflicted, as it affects the native's character and social standing.

1. Barack Obama – Presidential Victory (2008)

- Jupiter Transit (2008): In 2008, Jupiter was transiting Obama's ascendant (Capricorn), which helped in elevating his status. His natal Jupiter is placed in the 1st house, and transiting Jupiter came back to the same house, amplifying the positive effects. Jupiter's aspect on his 5th house (Leo) and 9th house (Virgo) brought fortune, success in politics, and the favor of the masses.
- Saturn Transit: Saturn was transiting in Leo, activating his 8th house, indicating transformation and change. This combination of Jupiter and Saturn helped bring about the momentous victory, propelling him to the highest office.

2. Amitabh Bachchan – Comeback with Kaun Banega Crorepati (2000)

- Jupiter and Saturn Transits (2000): Amitabh Bachchan's career was in a slump during the late 1990s. However, in 2000, Jupiter was transiting his 10th house of career (Aries), aspecting his 2nd house of wealth, 4th house of happiness, and 6th house of competition. This favorable transit of Jupiter aligned with his comeback through Kaun Banega Crorepati, a show that restored his fame and financial position.
- Saturn's Transit: Saturn was transiting through his 6th house (Cancer), giving him the power to overcome obstacles and rivals, indicating that hard work would lead to positive outcomes. This period marked a turnaround in his life and career, fulfilling the predictions made based on his planetary transits.

3. Princess Diana – Marriage to Prince Charles (1981)

- Rahu-Ketu Transits (1981): During Princess Diana's marriage to Prince Charles in 1981, transiting Rahu was in her 4th house of home and family, indicating a dramatic change in her personal life. Rahu's influence is often associated with a rise to fame or an unconventional marriage.
- Jupiter Transit: Jupiter was transiting through Virgo, her ascendant, bestowing popularity and global attention. This transit brought her marriage into the limelight and made her a beloved figure on the world stage.
- Saturn Transit: At the time, Saturn was transiting her 8th house (Aquarius), a house of transformation and sudden changes, indicating that while her marriage would bring fame, it also hinted at the struggles and challenges that she would face later.
